

call for entries international internet dance festival SideBySide-net 2009

Posted by helena febres fraylich on May 19, 2009 at 6:09pm

SideBySide art center defines its main purpose in supporting and cultivating art and culture, stage-play and dance. In general, the association wants to help talented artists of any genre. In detail, SideBySide art center especially wants to give social support to young people in the areas of art, culture, training and education. Thus, the association exclusively and immediately serves public welfare purposes.

SideBySide art center offers artists of all kinds a new cultural platform. Always on behalf of their urges - communication, exchange and public images - the association tries to bring artists of different genres together and paves the way for their artistic development (side by side). Young talents as well as renowned artists can use this platform to get into contact with each other, to participate in a project or to find a new and individual way of presenting themselves effectively to the public.

FESTIVAL

Choreographers who take part in the fifth international internet dance festival SideBySide-net 2009 get the unique opportunity to present themselves and their art online to a broad international audience over a longer period of time.

The videos of the recent four festivals' participants have in sum been watched and voted by almost 100.000 viewers from all over the world. The audience's favourite artists receive prizes summing up to 3.000 Euro.

» Download application form here <http://www.side-by-side.org/en/festival/2009>
Application deadline is July 31st 2009.

Tags: festival, internet

Source: www.dance-tech.net May 19th 2009